

The Contemporary Arts Center's
Affect/Effect: Scott Carter
 October 6th - November 19, 2011

Opening Reception

October 6th (Friday, Thursday) 6:00pm to 9:00pm
 Art Talk: 7:00pm

First Friday

Friday, October 7th, 2011, 6:00pm to 10:00pm

By deconstructing the CAC gallery, Scott is attempting to question the use of the space itself. Exploring a relationship of robust and delicate while creating various possibilities through the reworking of brick in various design and systems in contemporary architecture. To achieve this he will be cutting, drilling and excavating sections of drywall patterns out from the surrounding walls. This process creates a pattern of negative spaces left after cutting into the original gallery walls.
